MADONNA HIGH SCHOOL

Niagara Falls, New York

The liturgical year is a magnificent hymn of praise directed towards God by the family of Christians. We at Madonna, under the direction of Mary our Mother, the Queen of the Liturgy, have strived with a true Christian spirit to understand and apply the message of this song in our school year. If, by adopting the liturgy as the theme of the 1963 Madonna, we can add but one meaningful note to this sublime hymn, we shall be thankful.

In Memoriam

THE MOST REVEREND

Joseph A. Burke, D.D.

The unexpected death of our beloved Bishop Joseph A. Burke has deeply saddened the entire Diocese of Buffalo and indeed, the whole world. We at Madonna owe Bishop Burke a special debt of gratitude for his zealous interest in our school and his wisdom in its founding. By heeding the good example he set, we can best prove our loyalty to him and to the principles for which he lived and died.

Our Bishops

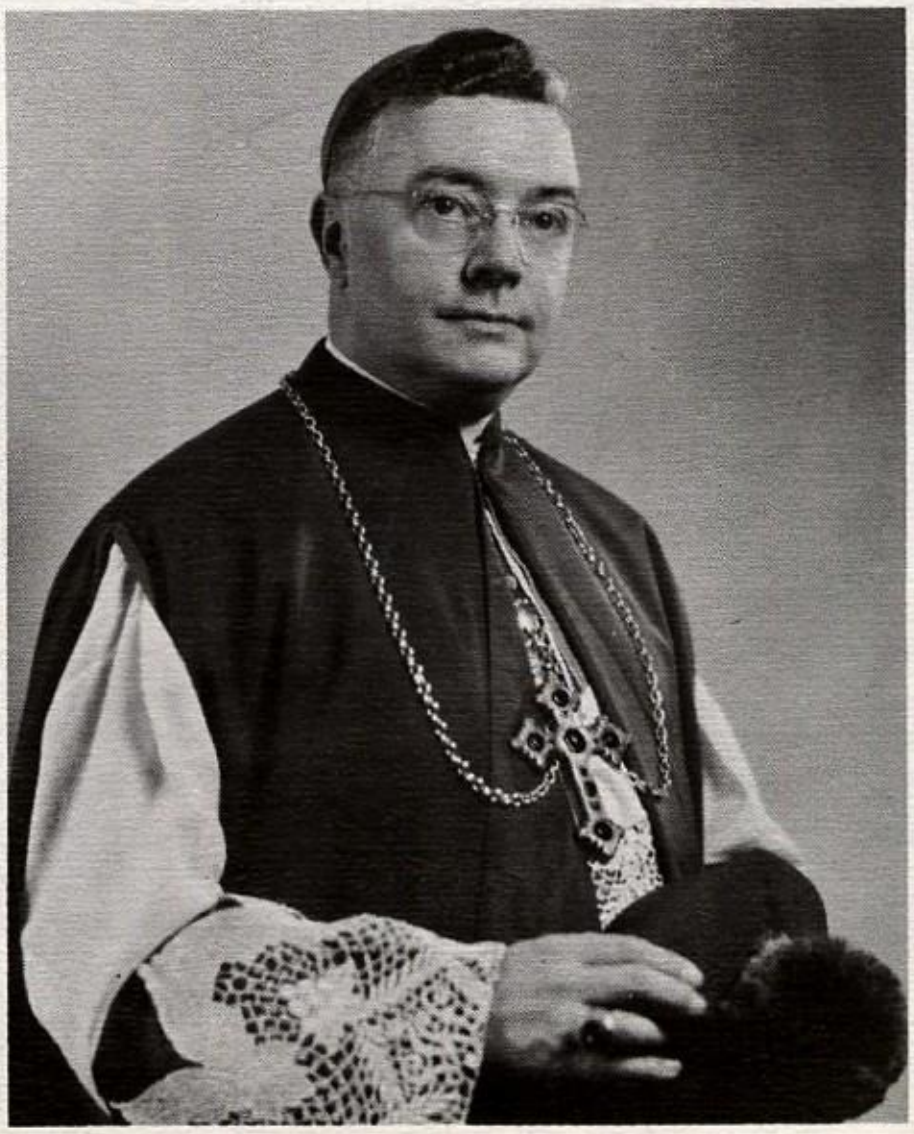
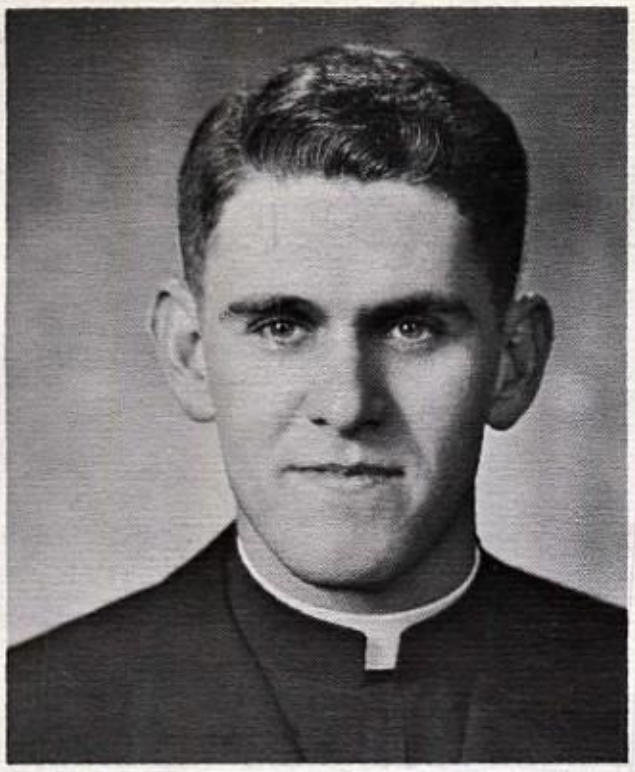
LEO R. SMITH, D.D.

His Excellency, the Most Reverend Leo R. Smith, through his extensive personal contact with youth, has become well acquainted with its basic needs and aspirations. One of his prime pastoral concerns has been the promotion of Catholic education and the guidance of Christ's youthful standard bearers. We, the students of Madonna High School, salute Bishop Smith, who has earned our deep respect and gratitude.





Reverend
NORMAN J. McLAUGHLIN
Assistant Superintendent

MR. J. ALAN DAVITT
Director of Secondary Education and Administrators

The Oblates of St. Francis deSales from Bishop Duffy High School provide every spiritual advantage for our girls.

Thank you the cake, Pat.
Fr. L. Clynowski, OSFS

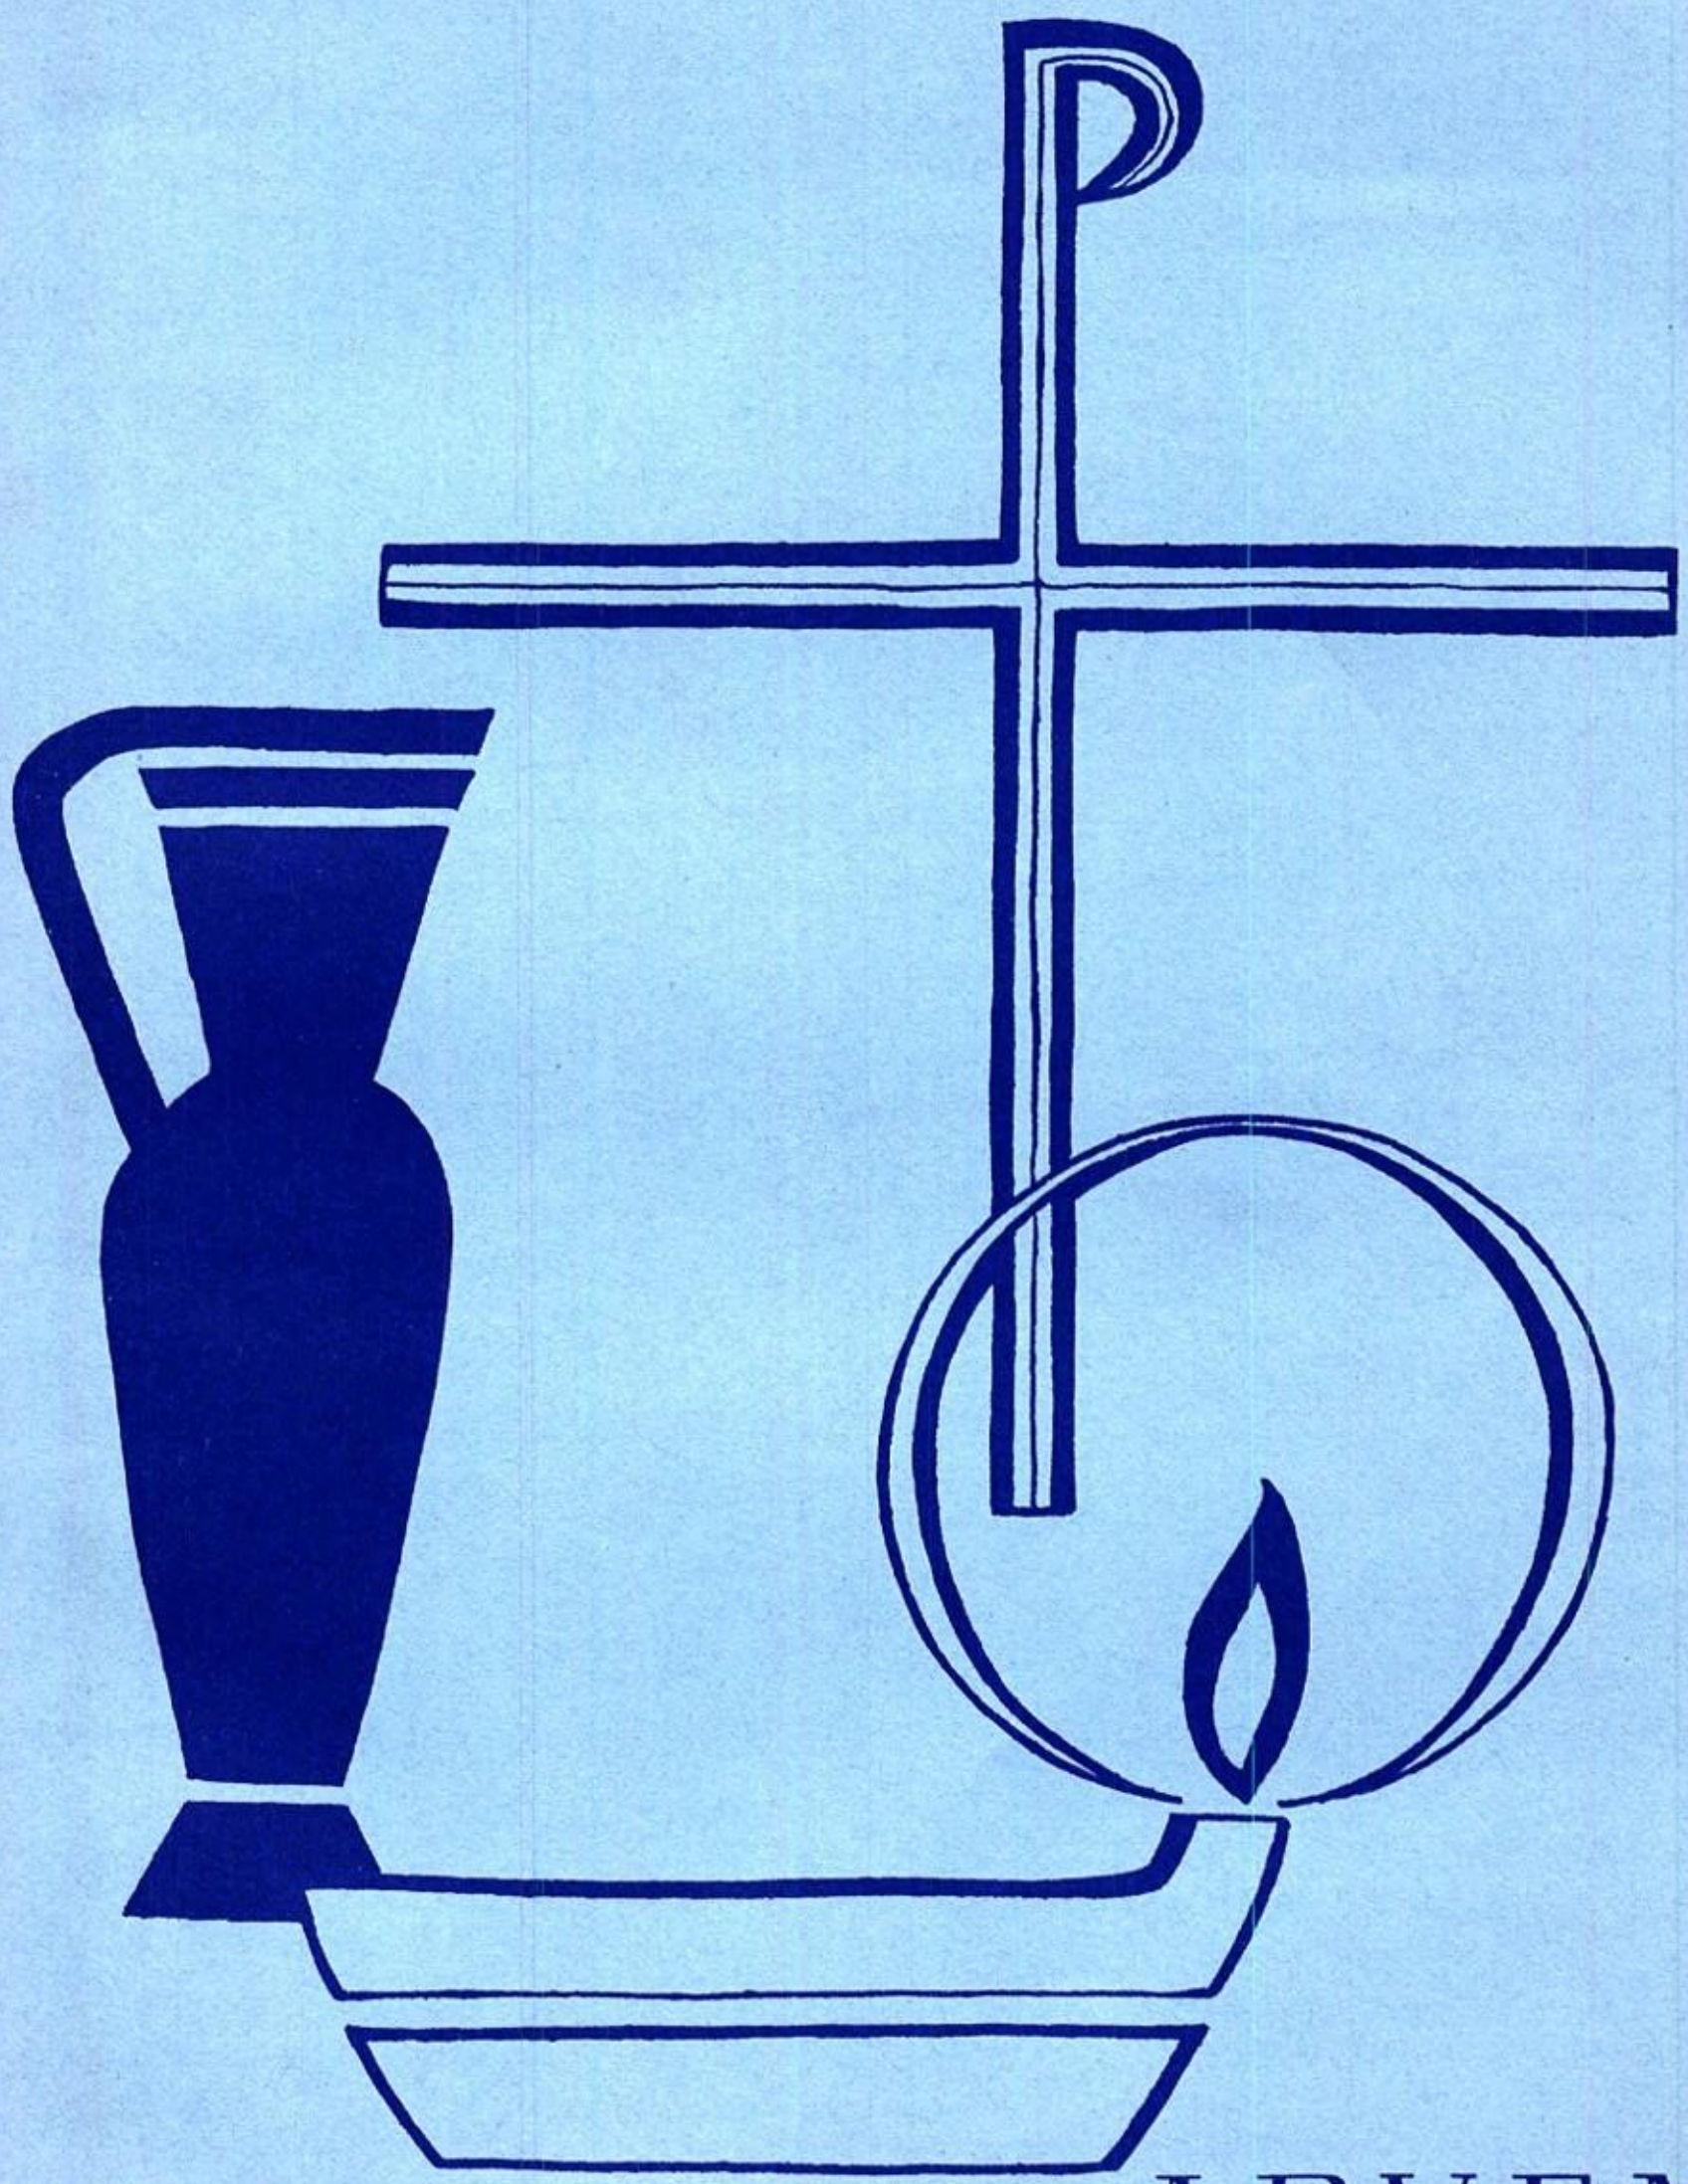
Madonna's teachers are the finest. Seated: Sister M. David, Sister M. Rosella, Sister M. Loyola, Sister M. Innocentia, vice principal, Sister Eileen Marie, Sister M. Monica. Standing: Mrs. Helen Meyer, Miss Patricia Bovanizer, Mr. James McMahon, Mrs. Frances Volpe.

It was a great day for the seniors when Father Magee presented them with their Mercy Shields of white, red and gold. D. Meraw, B. Sawczyk, D. Piaquadio, D. Cournyea, R. Wozny, J. Wisch, L. Webb, G. Viscomi.

We owe a debt of gratitude . . .

The Reverend Bernard J. Magee, our senior religion instructor, explains to seniors and juniors the significance of the Mercy pin.

As a part of our guidance program, Sister M. Daniel, directress of nurses at St. Jerome Hospital, discusses careers in nursing with C. Dobrasz, S. Ormsby, S. Mann and E. Turcotte.



ADVENT

Dear Pat,

It'll take me a year and a day to sign your book because there are so many things that I could write - maybe I'd better not - we share so many happy memories of our junior year. I know I'll never forget all the times mine doubled and all the times we laughed and cried and planned and schemed & all the last I guess it all worked out for the best in some ways. After all we went through Ray, Jim, Dennis, Ray & N.U together and those were fun times. We did have a ball never forget the night we watched T.V. and had the chicken sandwiches, and the night we went to the falls (you were with Dennis. Yes, Pat we share many memories and as the summer comes, I hope we share more. But with Ray leaving me can't double and with my working, I don't think we'll be seeing much of one another. Just always remember I think a lot of you and that next year we can do it all over again starting with that first N.U social.

Thank you for all the time and patience you had getting Ray and I back together. You can be Maid of Honor, if not Matron.

I'll have fun this summer but be good (ha ha) Next fall we'll have more fun. I wonder if will have eight period study?

It seems sad when I think of next year being our last year at Madonna. I'll really like it you know and will miss it alot. All the notes we wrote one another I still have them. They're so funny. Next year I'll bring them to school. They're almost like a diary.

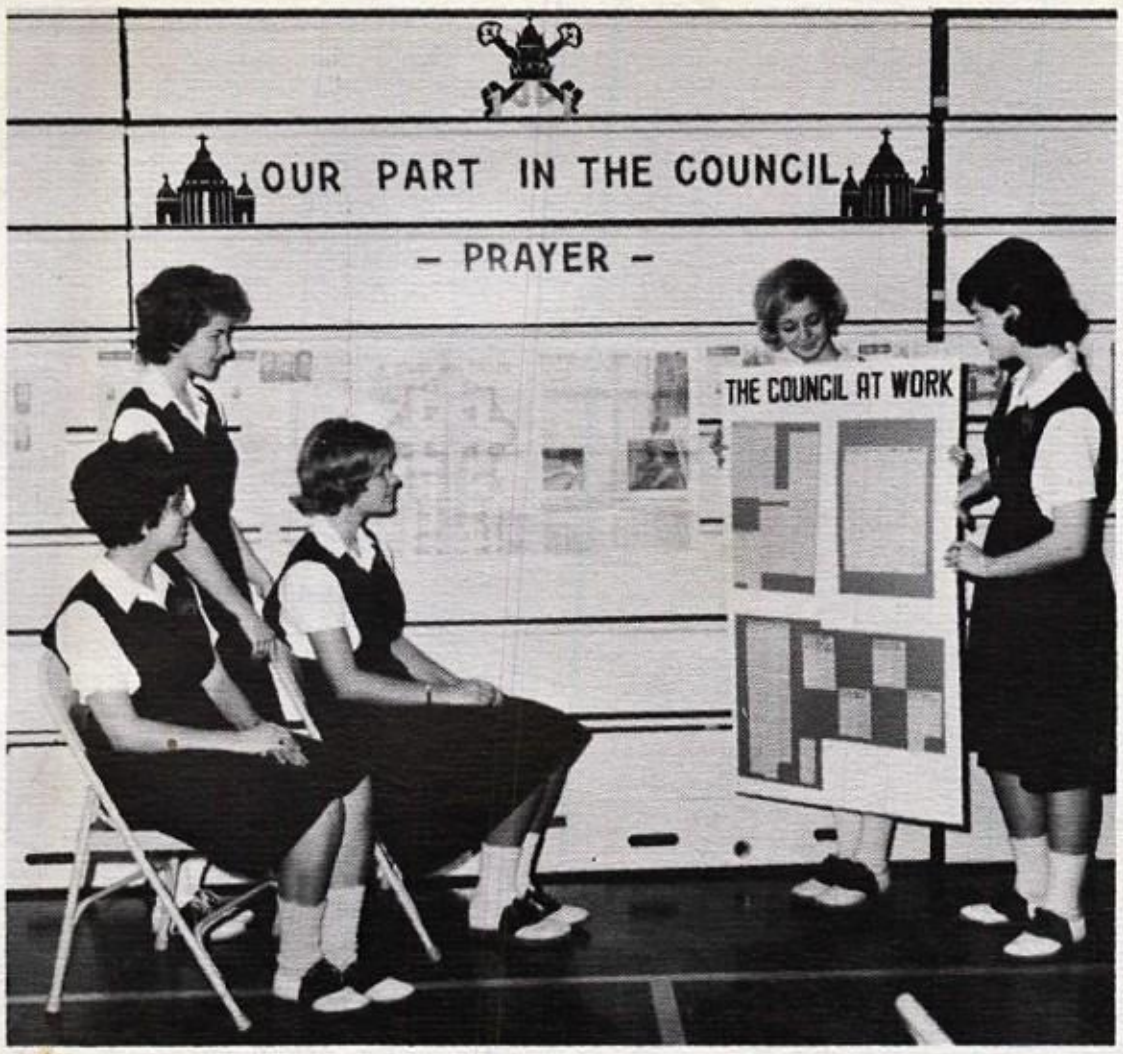
practically everything we did this year it was recorded. The worst thing was the time we had a misunderstanding about Jim. That's gone and forgotten. I'd never do anything to hurt you. We'll all now be good and stay as sweet as you are and don't forget me this vacation. God bless you - you'll need it trying to keep one boyfriend away from another.

Love Mousie

P.S. afterthought - it almost did take a year & a half to get your book back but now think of all the memories it brought back.

- this was the year of elephant jokes. Did you hear about the elephant who strained himself? He ran into a screen!!

Advent is the beginning of the ecclesiastical year. It is a period of anticipation and preparation for the birth of the Son of God. During this time we renew our efforts to live a full Christian life. So too, in our school year Advent is a period of longing and expectation. We know that if we prepare ourselves, we will be rewarded with knowledge and wisdom, with the coming of the Word of God into our hearts. It is with this goal in mind that we begin our school year.



L. DiLaura, D. Meraw, K. Golda, M. Cassidy and M. Dooher are among the seniors who prepared a display on the Council.

A Memorable Year

The Second Vatican Council convenes at Rome

"To extend the frontiers of Christian love" is given as the principal purpose of the Council in a panel presented by the twelfth year English class, and represented here by L. Connor, S. Mann, C. Dobrasz, B. Kantanista, P. Mills, N. O'Laughlin, and L. Webb.

A Living Faith

These girls submitted the best junior projects on the Council: L. Beblo, S. Amery, J. Bruno, and C. Certo.

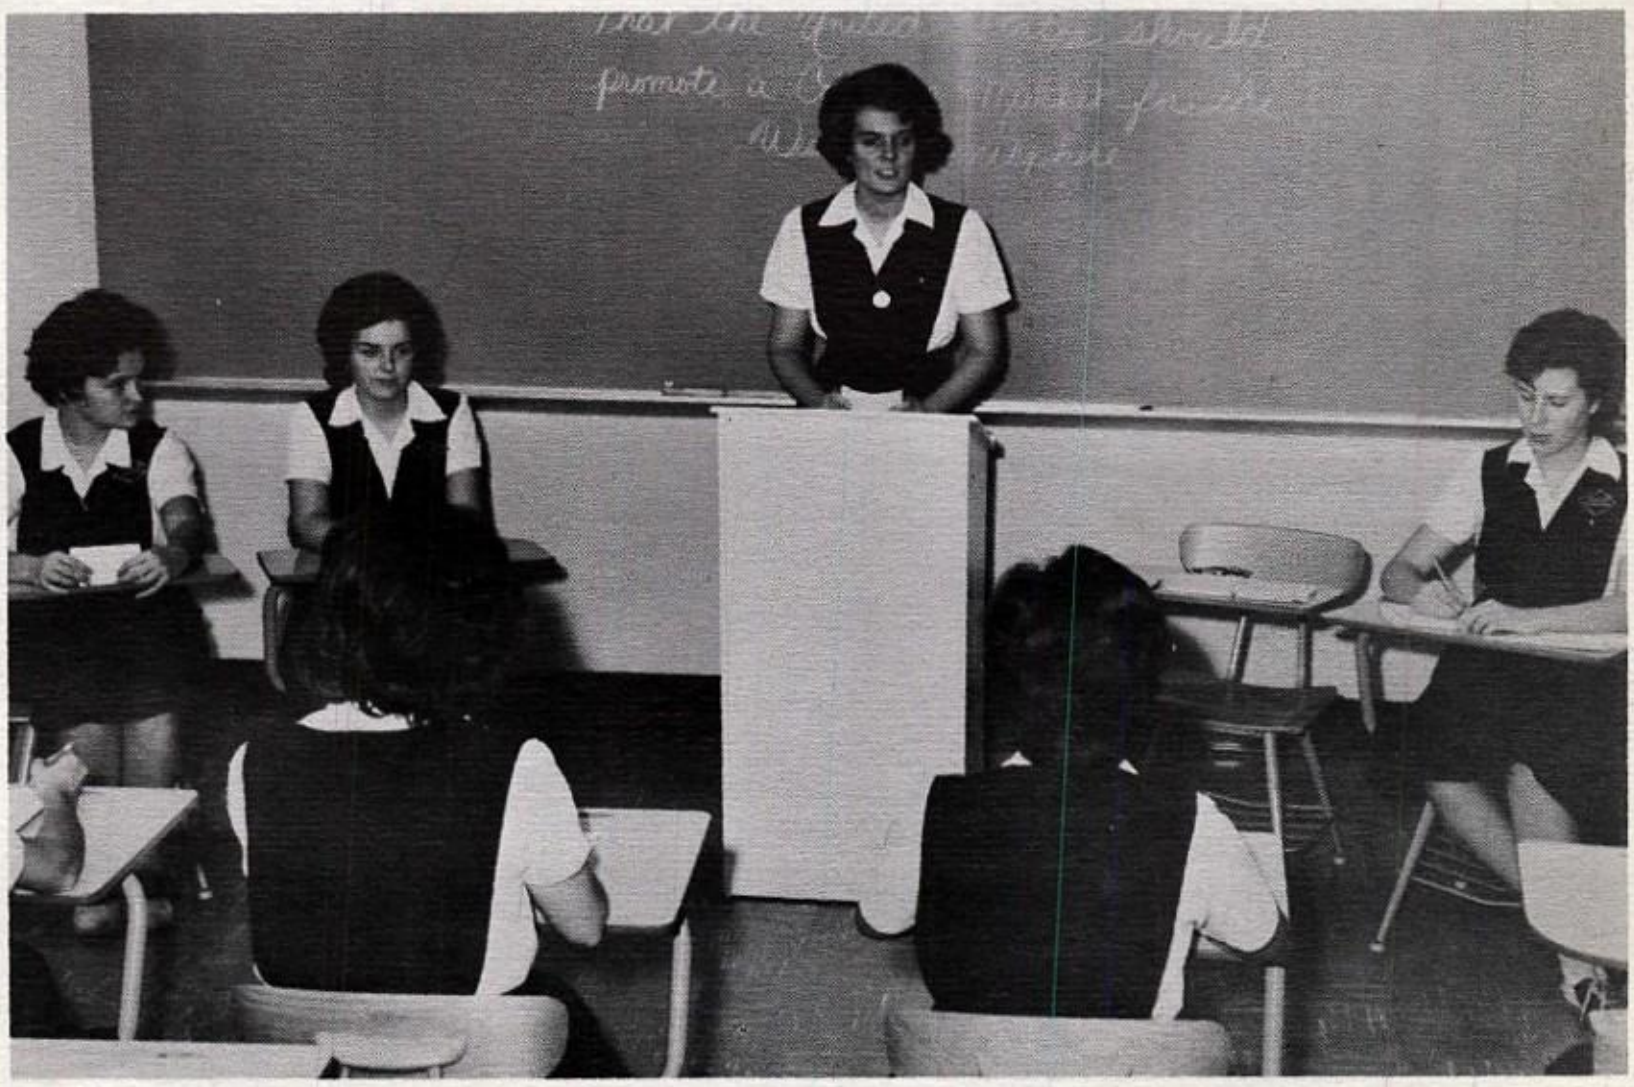
L. Bergey wants to be sure our students are informed. She is arranging a Freshman bulletin board on the Vatican Council.

Top: Learning to make the Sign of the Cross is the project which M. Nagelhout and A. Joyce are supervising in this first grade Confraternity class.

A Logical Approach

DEBATE CLUB. Should the United States Promote a Common Market for the Western Hemisphere? The pros and cons of this topic are being debated by J. Capone, A. Longo, F. Olszewski and N. O'Laughlin.

Time runs out as B. Kantanista argues the affirmative. K. Bach, M. McCarthy, and L. Connor are acting club critics.



Fall Frolic

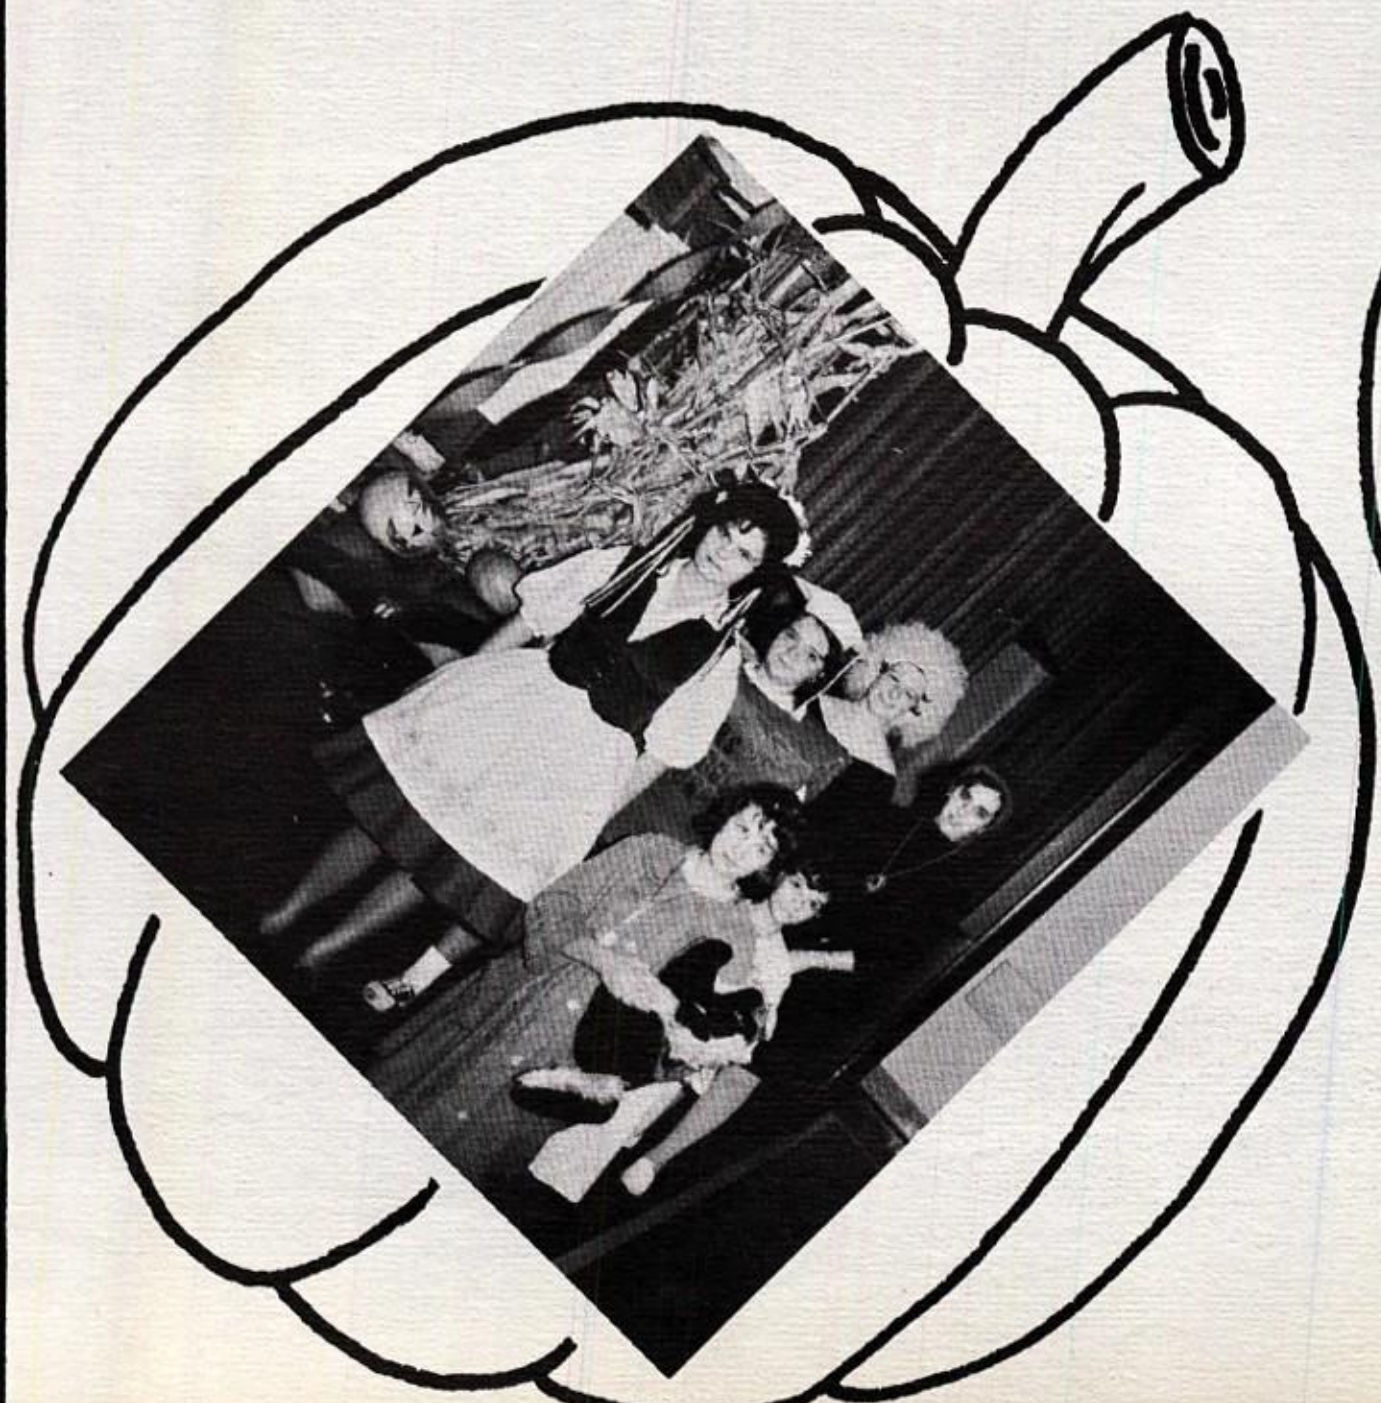
SMILE! Seniors S. Batchelor and K. Dawson with their dates, R. Martinez and W. Kluga, seem to be really enjoying Mario's music.

FALL HOP? The Bunny Hop is never out of season. These frolickers pick up the beat quickly.

SERVICE WITH A SMILE! S. Mann, N. Fichter, B. Sawczyk, and S. Montie take time out from the dance to serve refreshments.

LITTLE SISTERS. A lovely line-up is surveyed by President Dooher as J. Quaglia, E. Tavano, M. Schimscheiner, C. Oswald, B. Sawszyk, and C. Cadille prepare refreshments at the Senior-Freshman party.

Welcome Freshmen!



STORYBOOK LAND. E. Rokicki, K. Kennedy, P. Berry, K. Mittan, P. Fabiano, S. Pietrzyk are having a good time as other pert and pretty Freshies pose at left: C. Wilgosz, E. Durkee, K. Campanella, S. McGrath, M. Balliet, and D. Ferraro.

All Nature

NIAGARA'S FUTURE CHEMISTS. Concentration is on the faces of these scientists as they prepare carbon dioxide.

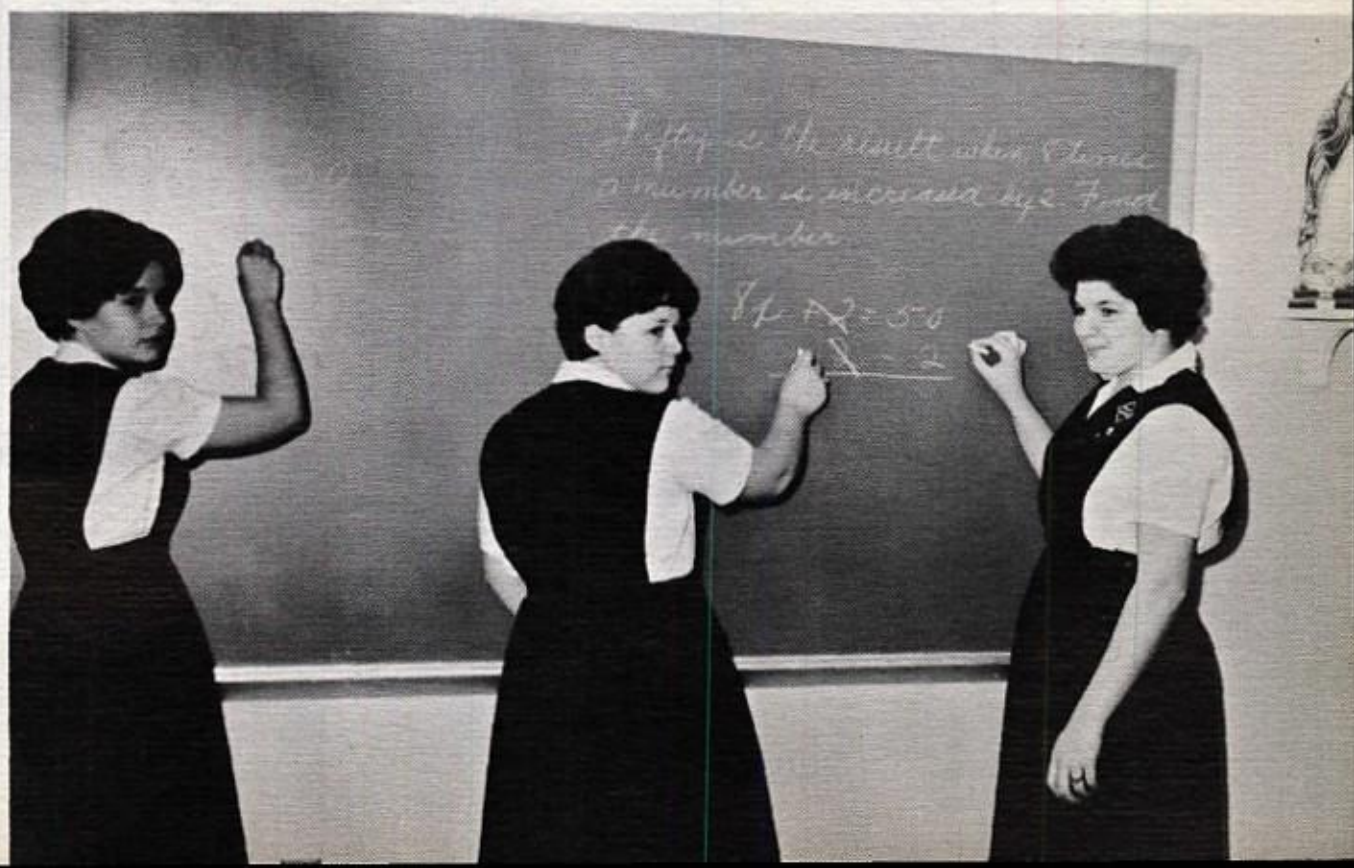
PROTOZOA, ANYBODY? C. Proudfoot studies pond water for protozoa, while B. Schreiber and R. Biggins examine the external anatomy of the earthworm.

Down through the ages the Mystical Rose has been a symbol of Our Blessed Mother.

Bless The Lord!

MATH 12. A. Rountree, D. Meraw, C. Oswald, C. Dobrasz, J. Erickson, and L. Connor work with Sister M. John Francis on the evaluation of determinants.

BUSINESS MATH. M. Blake, K. Barrett, and M. DiMarco know how to handle this commission problem.



ALGEBRA. "Equations seem to be our downfall," say S. Bryk, C. Scavulli, and L. Maroon.

Just before Christmas Madonna was host at a party for the Inter-High Student Council.

Marna and Pat Flaherty sing for us as they have so often during their high school days — always with many encores.

C. Serianni, E. McDonald, and D. Dean are Theresa, Mother McAuley, and Danny in the Sodality play to mark the Foundation Day of the Sisters of Mercy.

Good Times Together

Madonna girls lend a helping hand at the Bishop Duffy Mothers' Club Fashion Show.

S. Amery and B. Sawicki play 19th century Dubliners who wonder about the big house on Baggot Street.

CHRISTMAS

Concealing His divinity in the frail Babe of Bethlehem, the Son of God came into this world to begin the work of our redemption and sanctification. Just as Christ's identity was concealed, our potential lies hidden within us waiting for development. During the Christmas season we are reminded of the love which moved Our dear Lord to leave heaven for us. At Madonna, as we gather around the Christmas crib, we pray that this love will bear abundant fruit in the development of devoted Catholic women.

Peace on Earth

To Men of Good Will . . .

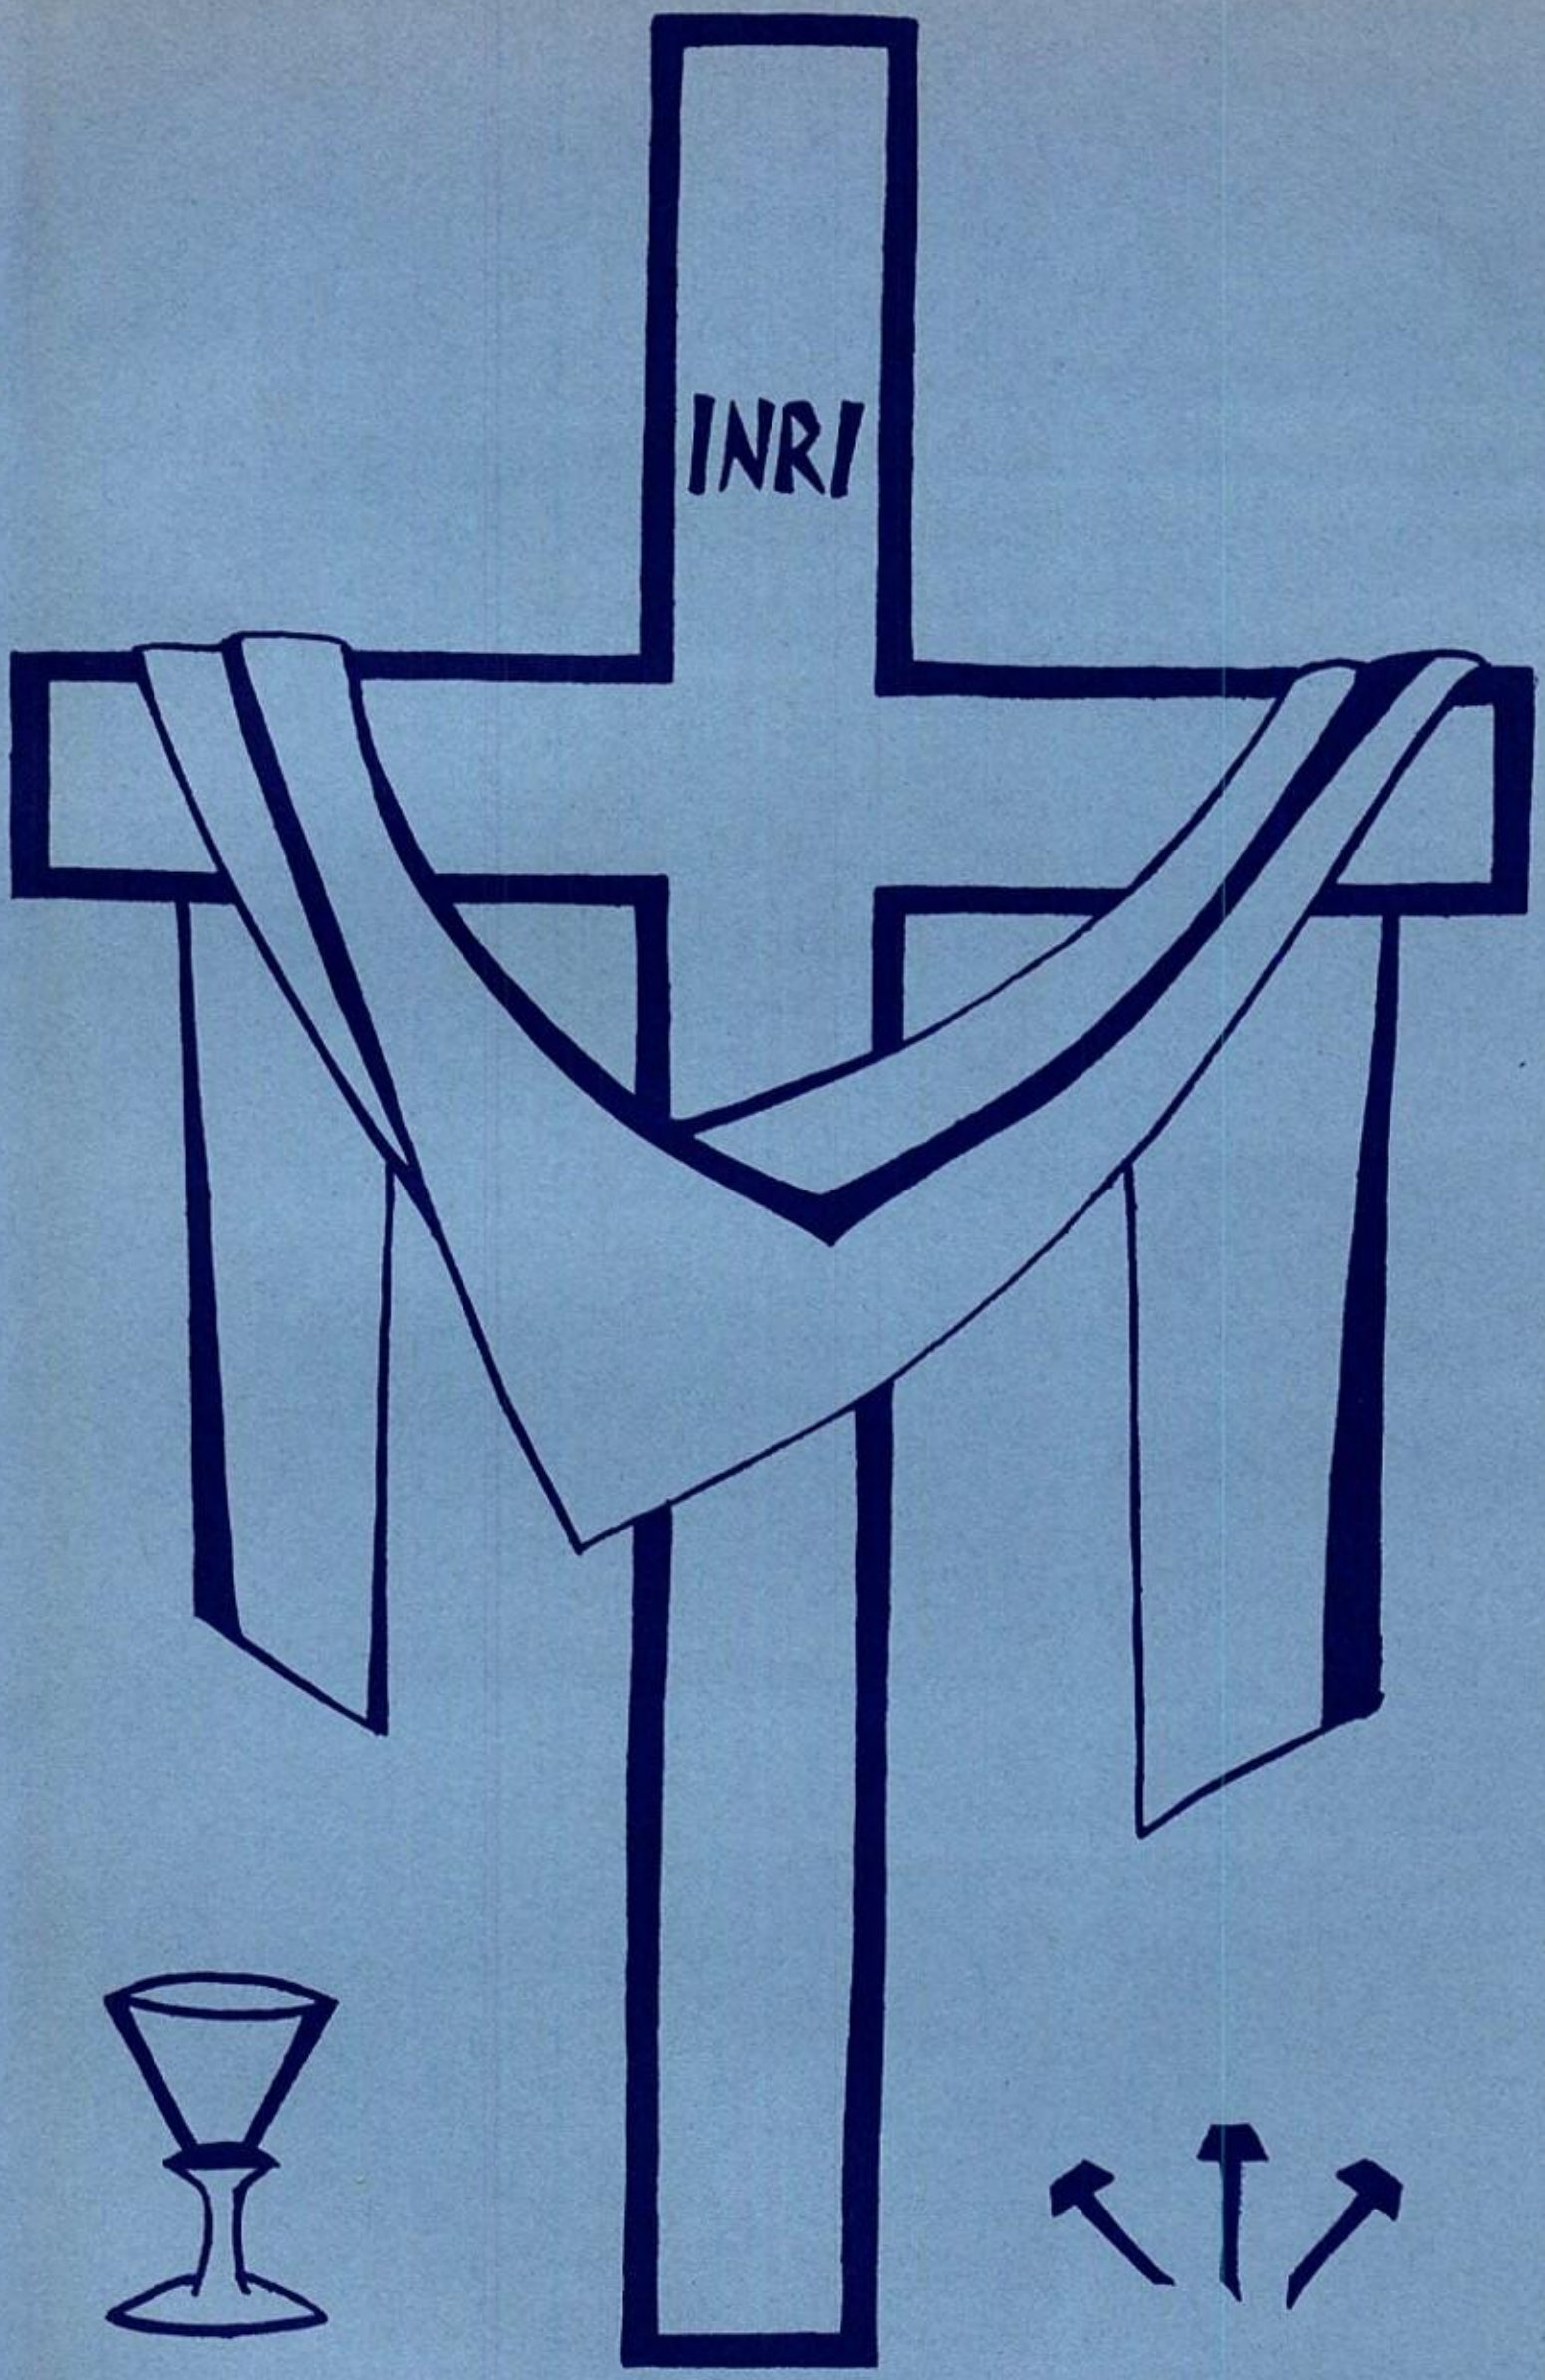
The Advent liturgy is fulfilled in the joy of Christmas. Our hopes and longings are satisfied in the coming of the Infant Savior. The Christmas scene (left) was the high point of our Nativity program. P. Fitzgibbons, L. Manerino, N. Iadicicco, S. Batchelor, M. Berry, J. Erickson and K. Dawson (lower left) showed us in Why the Chimes Rang that only hearts filled with charity will find the Christ Child. D. Meraw (right) was a member of the angelic choir, and S. Mann (below) played the Little Christ.

Queen of the Capers, Joe Quaglia, is crowned by her escort, William O'Donnell.

WINTER ENCHANTMENT. Enchanted or not, the punch bowl beckons C. Oslund, A. Splendore, M. McMahon, S. Canavan, E. McDonald, and their dates.

Junior-Senior Capers

Postponed once because of the biggest storm of the season, the Capers was a gala event for juniors and seniors.

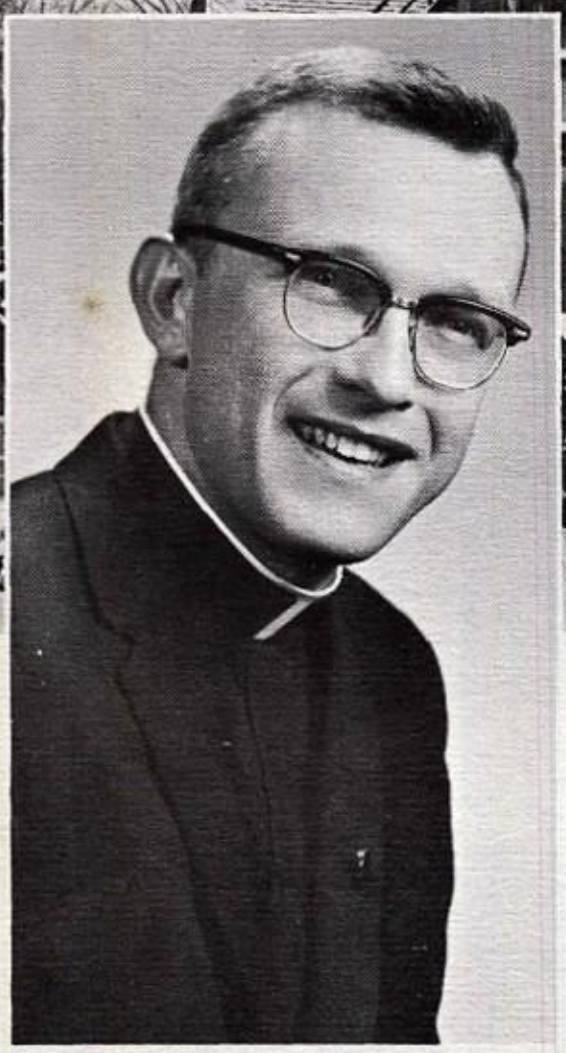


LENT

Lent is a time of penance and heartsearching. Our Saviour, in compliance with the will of His heavenly Father, suffered and died on the cross to return to us the kingdom and to establish us once again as children of God. Following the example of Jesus, we try to submit to and love the will of God, wanting only to participate in the plan of creation as God has directed. In this Lenten season we quicken our search for the means by which we can fulfill God's all-wise plan for us.

MOTHER OF MERCY RETREAT HOUSE

Retreats



The Rev. John Francis McLaughlin, C.P., an old friend of our seniors, conducted their retreats, providing untold spiritual blessings.

Sister M. Clara, former teacher at Madonna, was our gracious hostess at the senior retreat.

The Rev. Bruce Lardie, O.Carm., was retreat master for the freshmen.

Spiritual advice from the Rev. Thomas F. Gavin, S.J., was one of the advantages of the sophomore-junior retreat.

THE FINER ARTS. M. Flynn and C. Gazy put up their fall water colors as D. Kelsch and K. Gallagher offer suggestions.

EASTER

With the beginning of the Easter season, the victorious banner of the risen Christ is raised on high. Our souls are flooded with deep joy as the triumph of Christ is commemorated. We try to realize that because of this Paschal victory we must rise again with the Redeemer from an indifferent life to a more fervent and holier one. This is the feast of feasts in the liturgical year. We at Madonna, hoping to hold aloft one day the banner of a successful child of God, find that the only adequate expression to convey the spirit of this time is that of Holy Mother Church – Alleluia!

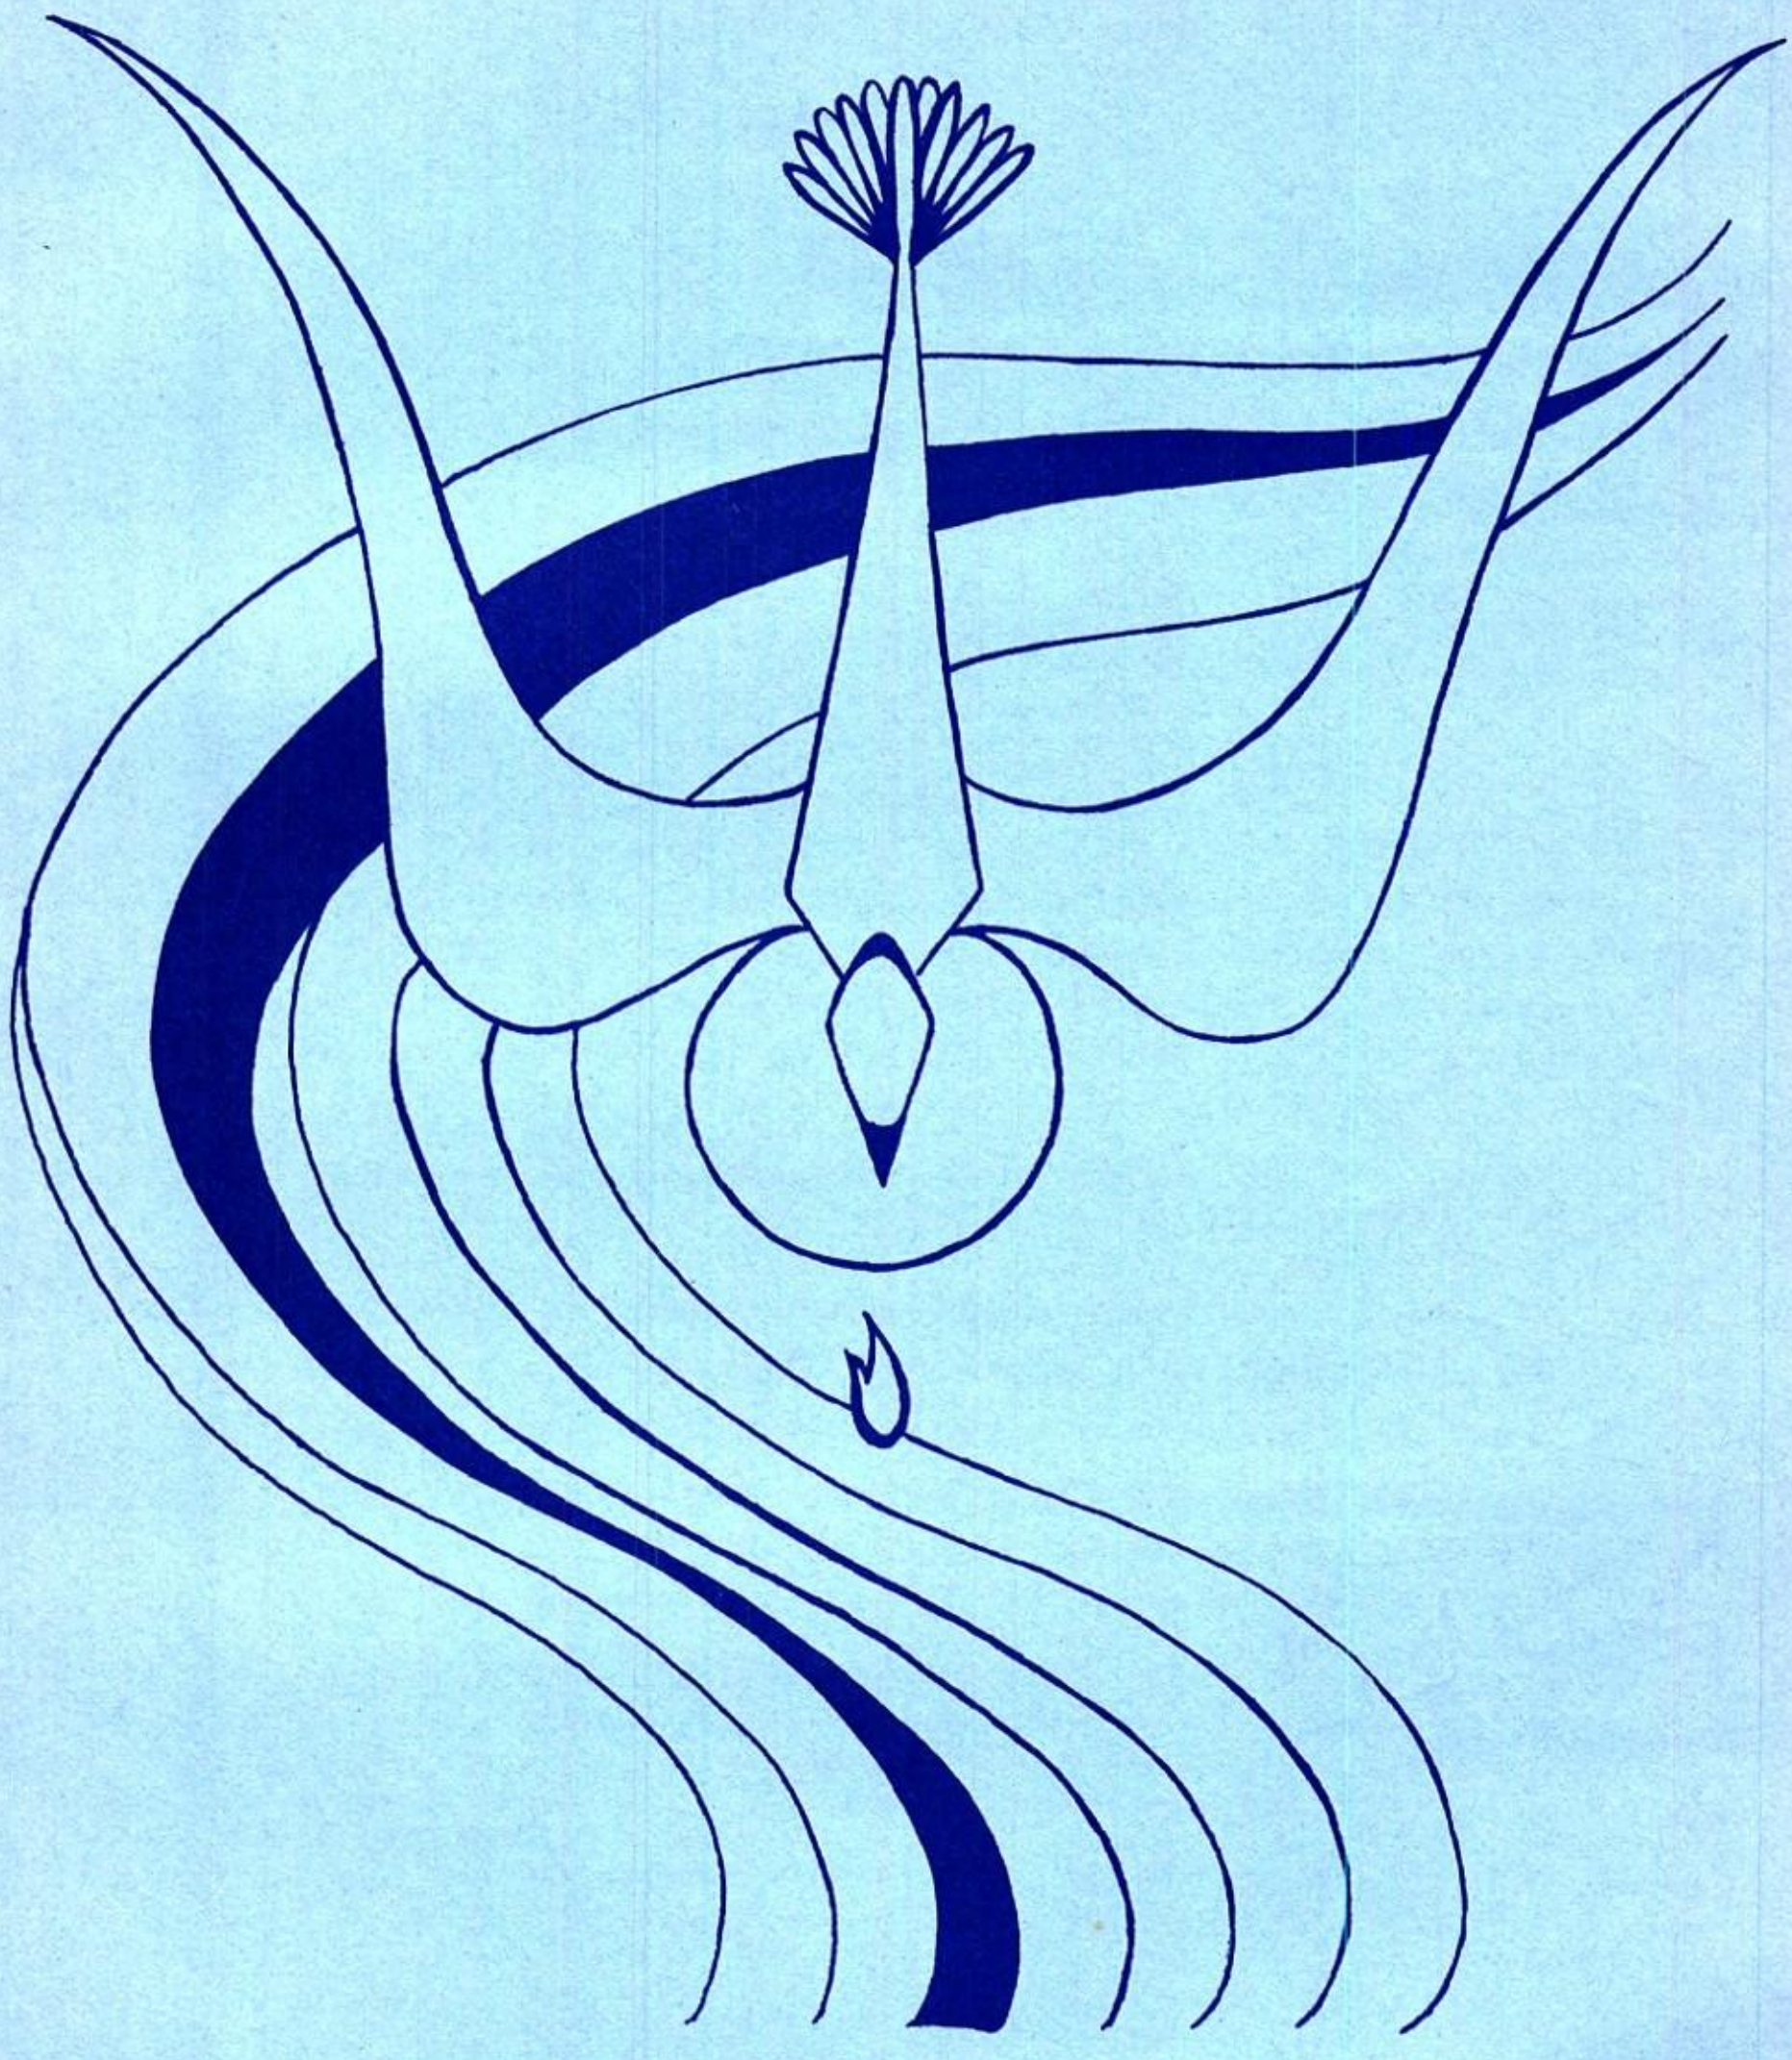
The highest scholastic honor at Madonna is membership in the National Honor Society. Our senior members include — First row: K. Dawson, P. Flaherty, J. Erickson, M. DelZoppo. Second row: T. Turcotte, S. Ormsby, M. Berry, B. Kantanista, J. Pastore, E. Tavano.

Special Senior Days

Rev. Mother M. Vincentia urges all students of the Sisters of Mercy to excellence in all fields. She stresses the fulfillment of God's Holy Will in our lives.

On that very special day for the seniors, big sisters E. Duignan, P. Deal, and K. Negvesky are proud to show that new ring to Elizabeth, Kathleen and Nancy.



PENTECOST

Pat.
You're a real pal, but a wonderful
one. I hope Mary will receive in life
everything you deserve,
May God bless you always.
Love,
Carol

Pentecost is the feast of the Holy Spirit, the day on which He descended upon the Apostles and shaped them into zealous preachers of the true faith. Pentecost is renewed in our lives each year. At this time we Madonna girls become fired with fresh enthusiasm in pursuing our goal: the attainment of our heritage through the fulfillment of God's will. As the liturgical year advances toward its completion, so does our school year. Gratefully we await the inspiration of the Holy Spirit in the work of our sanctification, and we anticipate with joy the commencement of another year with Christ through the liturgy.

– ALICE BACHORSKI

APRIL IN PARIS. Springtime in the French style was the background when President M. E. Dooher presented Queen Lucille Morello with her roses in the presence of P. Flaherty, M. Buckley, K. Golda, and their escorts.

QUEEN OF THE PROM. Within the shadow of the Eiffel Tower, Our Lady receives the crown presented to her by L. Morello in the name of all the seniors.

COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN. K. Dawson, M. Schimscheiner, M. Dooher, M. Buckley, K. Golda, J. Wisch, J. Quaglia, and P. Flaherty, with their escorts.

Senior Prom

THE SIDEWALK CAFE. The Rue de la Paix never saw such crowds of elegantly attired young ladies. Magnifique!

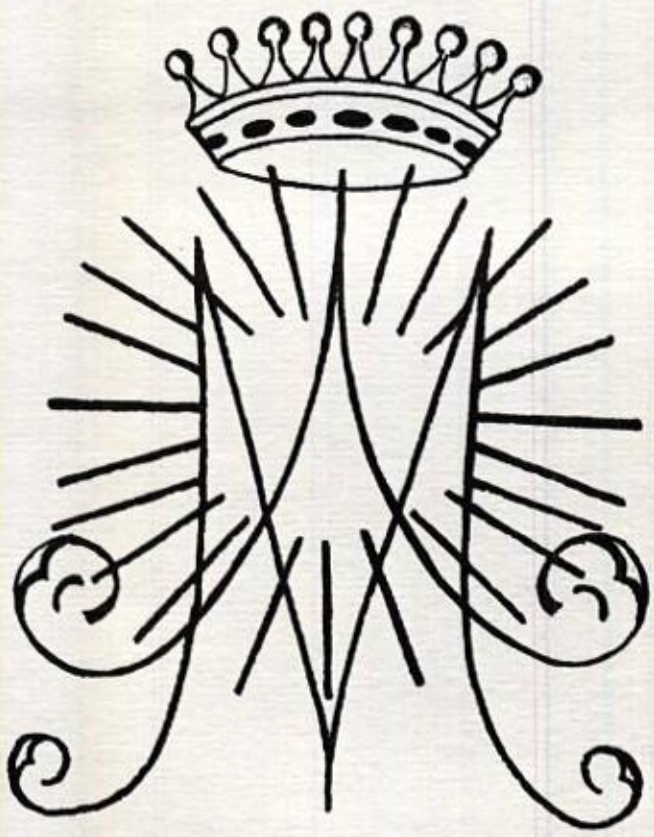
Sodality of Our Lady

Members of Our Lady's Sodality recite the Little Office of the Immaculate Conception weekly in chapel.

The annual May Crowning to honor Our Lady is held on the lawn in front of school. The ceremony is organized by the Sodality.

Sodality Prefect Maureen DelZoppo confers with M. Schimscheiner, M. Pellicano, and J. Paonessa after the May crowning. They are making plans for another year of loving dedication to Our Lady.

We Love Thee, O Mary,
Thy Praises We Sing.



A clothing drive for the needy occupies the attention of Sodalists B. Grabowski, E. Askey, R. Skurjewski, M. DelZoppo, and G. Viscomi.

At the Student Council Installation ceremony, our principal, Sister M. Eloise, confers the gavel, the symbol of authority, on President Diane Dokla.

Student Council officers for the current year: C. Certo, vice president; K. Dawson, treasurer; J. Wisch, secretary and D. Dokla, president.

J. Wisch, B. Kantanista, and N. O'Laughlin help bring Catholic literature into the homes of the city by taking charge of the Catholic Union and Echo drive.

Student Council

The Student Council tries to advance the welfare of the school in every possible way, but especially in cementing bonds of loyalty between students and faculty. One of the most successful projects attempted this year was a Christmas Bazaar, which resulted in a display of fine school spirit. S. Montie (upper right) was Chairman. Next we view the rush hour at 105's French cafe. Waitresses D. Thorn, R. Proe and K. Rutledge will help you satisfy your sweet tooth, or if it's cakes and pies you prefer, gather 'round and N. Fichter, M. DelZoppo, or P. Duffy will wait on you.

For seven centuries Our Lady has been honored as the guiding star of those who have lost their way on life's seas.

FATHERS' NIGHT OUT. The Very Reverend Monsignor John J. Carey and Reverend Fathers Juergens, Magee, Chryzanowski, and Christ seem to be enjoying class day dinner.

Class Day Memories

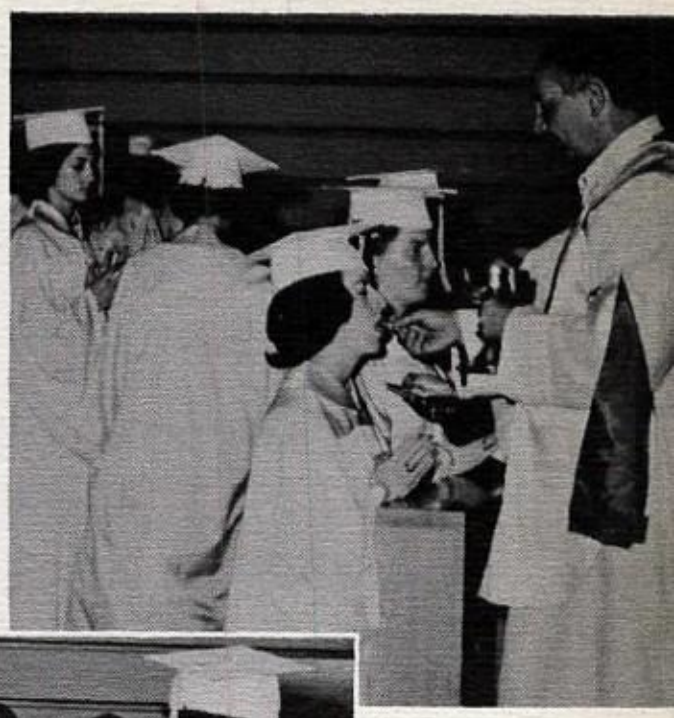
FAREWELL, SENIORS! M. A. Schimscheiner addresses the Class of '62.

WELL, WELL, WELL. K. Dawson, M. Berry, L. Manerino, M. DelZoppo, and A. Bachorski manufacture an elusive wishing well.

CLIMBING HIGH. M. Anderson, B. Kantanista, and P. Flaherty need a scaffold as they decorate for class day.

Right: The Reverend William A. Schwinger administers Holy Communion to our graduates.

Below: The Very Reverend Monsignor J. Stanly Ormsby presents a diploma to a Madonna graduate in the presence of distinguished members of the clergy.



LET YOUR LIGHT
SO SHINE BEFORE MEN
THAT THEY WILL SEE
YOUR GOOD WORKS AND GLORIFY YOUR FATHER IN HEAVEN.

These seniors, graduating from Madonna, will take their places in the world as active lay apostles.

Mothers' Club

GOING ONCE . . . The mothers' White Elephant auction was patronized enthusiastically by these energetic members: Mrs. Frank DiMarco, Mrs. Zenon Stanek, Mrs. Stanly Beblo, Mrs. Frank Young, Mrs. Anthony Foggia (president), Mrs. Robert Perlman, Mrs. Leo Gleason, Mrs. Joseph DiLaura, Mrs. John DeMunda, Mrs. Marcel Fiorucci (auctioneer), and Mrs. John Bankowski. Thanks to officers and mothers for all your hard work!

Fathers' Club

DAD, TOO. The second semester saw the organization of Madonna's Fathers' Club. Our fathers showed their interest in us by a fine attendance. This group promises great things for our school.

WHAT IS SO FAIR AS A DAY IN JUNE? C. Dobrasz and E. Cleary show their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dobrasz and Mr. and Mrs. David Cleary, the beauties of our patio.
